Voters Registration

"If you are not registered to vote where you live now, would you like to apply to register to vote here today? Yes No

IF YOU DO NOT CHECK EITHER BOX, YOU WILL BE CONSIDERED TO HAVE DECIDED NOT TO REGISTER TO

VOTE AT THIS TIME. If you want to register to vote or to update your registration, you can complete a voter registration form at www.ncsbe.gov/nvra/01, ask your caseworker or contact your local DSS for a voter registration form.

Applying to register or declining to register to vote will not affect the amount of assistance that you will be provided by this agency. If you would like help in filling out the voter registration application form, we will help you. The decision whether to seek or accept help is yours. You may fill out the application form in private. If you believe that someone has interfered with your right to register or to decline to register to vote, your right to privacy in deciding whether to register or in applying to register to vote, or your right to choose your own political party or other political preference, you may file a complaint with the North Carolina State Board of Elections, PO Box 27255, Raleigh NC 27611-7255, or you may call the toll free number, 1-866-522-4723."

What Happens After I Return My Application to Social Services?

Once we receive this signed application, we will determine if you continue to be eligible for SNAP. Eligible household will not need an interview but may be contacted if application is incomplete. We will send you a letter telling you about your benefits. This letter will explain your right to request a fair hearing if you are not satisfied with our decision on your application. If you do not agree with the decision made on your case, follow the instructions on the letter to request a hearing.

What If I Need Someone to Apply for or Use My SNAP Benefits For Me?

If you want someone other than yourself to use, or obtain information about your benefits, please check the box below. If you check Yes, we will mail you a form. You and the person you want to help can complete the form and return it to our office. This person will receive an EBT card and will have access to your Food and Nutrition Services benefits.

SIMPLIFIED NUTRITIONAL ASSISTANCE PROGRAM (SNAP)

Program Information and Your Rights and Responsibilities

What Is SNAP?

SNAP is a simplified version of the Food and Nutrition Services Program that seeks to deliver food to older adults in a new way. Many Food and Nutrition Services Program rules do not apply. Eligible household will not need an interview but may be contacted if application is incomplete. SNAP is a project that arose from a partnership between the North Carolina Division of Social Services and the U.S. Department of Agriculture Food and Nutrition Service.

Who Is Eligible?

DSS identified and mailed applications to individuals who receive SSI, and:

- Are age 65 or older;
- Are not living in an institution;
- Live in North Carolina;
- Buy and cook food separate from other people living in the home; and
- Are not disqualified from the regular Food and Nutrition Services Program.

What Am I Going to Receive?

If you are eligible for SNAP, we will automatically deposit either $166 or $206 into your Food and Nutrition Services benefits account every month. The amount you receive depends on your monthly rent or mortgage amount. We will send you a plastic card called an EBT Card that you can use to purchase most food items at participating grocery stores across the State. This method of receiving benefits is called Electronic Benefits Transfer (EBT). You may allow another person to get an EBT card so that person can use your benefits to purchase food for you. After applying for the program and established eligible, you will receive an EBT card and instructions for using it.

Note: If your rent or mortgage expenses are more than $150 per month, or your medical expenses are more than $35 per month, you may qualify for more benefits by applying for the regular Food and Nutrition Services Program. If you want to apply for the regular Food and Nutrition Services Program, you or your representative must contact your local DSS agency to apply.

What Are My Rights?

In accordance with federal civil rights law and U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) civil rights regulations and policies, this institution is prohibited from discriminating on the basis of race, color, national origin, sex (including gender identity and sexual orientation), religious creed, disability, age, political beliefs, or reprisal or retaliation for prior civil rights activity.

Program information may be made available in languages other than English. Persons with disabilities who require alternative means of communication to obtain program information (e.g., Braille, large print, audiotope, American Sign Language), should contact the agency (state or local) where they applied for benefits. Individuals who are deaf, hard of hearing or have speech disabilities may contact USDA through the Federal Relay Service at (800) 877-8339.

To file a program discrimination complaint, a Complainant should complete a Form AD-3027, USDA Program Discrimination Complaint Form which can be obtained online at: <https://www.usda.gov/sites/default/files/documents/USDA-OASCR%20P-Complaint-Form-0508-0002-508-11-28-17Fax2Mail.pdf>, from any USDA office, by calling (833) 620-1071, or by writing a letter addressed to USDA. The letter must contain the complainant's name, address, telephone number, and a written description of the alleged discriminatory action in sufficient detail to inform the Assistant Secretary for Civil Rights (ASCR) about the nature and date of an alleged civil rights violation. The completed AD-3027 form or letter must be submitted to:

Will My Information Be Kept Confidential?

Federal and State laws and regulations limit the use of confidential information for applicants and recipients of the Food and Nutrition Services Program. This information is used for purposes directly related to the administration of these programs.

We use your Social Security Number (SSN) to collect information from sources other than DSS to:

- Make sure your household is eligible for benefits;
- Check the identity of household members;
- Prevent households from getting more benefits than they should; and
- Identify groups of cases that must be changed.

We do this through program reviews, audits, or computer matching with other agencies such as the Social Security Administration, Internal Revenue Service, and data matching sources.

What Are the Penalties for Misusing My Benefits?

- Don't hide or give wrong information on purpose to get Food and Nutrition Services Benefits.
- Don't use Food and Nutrition Services Benefits to buy non-food items like alcohol or tobacco.
- Don't use Food and Nutrition Services Benefits to buy or sell firearms, ammunition, explosives, or illegal drugs.
- Don't trade or sell your Food and Nutrition Services Benefits.
- Don't use someone else's Food and Nutrition Services Benefits for yourself.
- Don't use your Food and Nutrition Services Benefits for someone else.
- Don't use your Food and Nutrition Services Benefits to pay on any kind of credit account.

If you intentionally break any of the rules above, you may not be able to get any more Food and Nutrition Services benefits from one year to permanently and may be fined up to $250,000 and/or jailed up to twenty years.

Giving wrong information may also mean we will reduce your benefits, or you may be required to repay benefits.
